

A New Way... in a New Day

The Stained Glass Association Will Meet in the Home City of Its National Headquarters and is celebrating with a new, lower pricing structure for early registration.

Register now for only $200!

June 28 – 30, 2010 • Kansas City, Missouri

This year's lecture themes will include artistic considerations and approaches, craft techniques, business planning in the studio, marketing in cyberspace and motivational and expert speakers in a wide range of topics, including:

- The Art of Making Glass
- Architects – What They Expect
- Visual Theology: Art in the Service of the Church
- Exploring Artistic Creativity

Registrants will also visit the offices and be able to view the permanent home site and building plans. Demonstrations will be given on building websites, mosaics, installation and business planning.

The Stained Glass School will host two days of pre-Conference classes June 26 and 27, including classes on Sandblasting with Kathy Barnard, Painting with Kathy Jordan and Bob Markert and Stained Glass Photography with Richard Gross.

There will be a major exhibition of glass panels. Sales from these panels will go toward the Stained Glass School Building Fund and the creation of its new state-of-the-art teaching facility.

Register now through January 1 for only $200! Call the SGAA Headquarters at 800.438.9581 to register, or e-mail sgaa@kcnet.com.

The official Conference hotel will be the Hyatt Regency Crown Center, $139 for Single or Double Occupancy. Reserve your room now by calling 800.233.1234 or 816.421.1234.

Make your travel arrangements now and save! With more than 32 years of experience, Raytown Travel Service will find you the best rates in Kansas City's very competitive airfare market. They will also be glad to help with rental-car arrangements. Raytown Travel Service, 800.524.6397 or e-mail Kathy@raytowntravel.net.